GOVERNMENT FORCES TAKE OVER MUKDEN

Russian Troops Evacuating City Forces To Make Stopovers at Chang-chun

TO SEND TRUCE TEAMS

By SPENCER MOOSA
Chungking, March 12—(P)—Russian troops evacuating Mukden have insufficient transportation facilities to move directly to Soviet territory, consequently must make stopovers at Chang-chun, the Soviet chief of staff officially informed Chinese officials today.

A growing Chinese government force was reported in control of Mukden as the retreating Russians yielded barracks and factories of that Manchurian industrial center.

The Chinese government meantime prepared to dispatch truce teams to halt Chinese factional strife.

A Chinese Central News dispatch from Changchun, the Manchurian capital, reported that 104 hours after the evacuation, Gen. Tung Yung-Ping, head of the Chinese military mission in Manchuria called upon the Russian chief of staff and asked about the troop movements.

The Soviet officer replied that, inasmuch as the Chinese government had announced its readiness to take over garrison duties in Mukden, Soviet forces had begun to leave the city. He gave no indication how long they would stop in Changchun. Previous dispatches from that city said there was no indication their preparations were for temporary billeting.

Chinese Communist and government representatives and General Marshall, special U. S. envoy, agreed in principle yesterday that truce teams should visit Manchuria. Details are being worked out. Marshall left immediately for Washington to report to President Truman.

Meantime, however, a government dispatch charged that Communists were violating the truce agreement in southern Shansi province. It asserted the Communists were tightening their siege of Kuwo and Kiangsien and entirely had cut off supplies to government forces inside the town of Wensi.

New Attack Made On Churchill Talk

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, March 12—(P)—A special writer in the Soviet government Izvestia declared today that Winston Churchill's proposals concerning British-American military cooperation met with success, they would "sharply change for the worse the already tense" world situation.

In the Russian press' second attack in as many days on Churchill's March 5 speech at Fulton, Mo., Izvestia said Churchill had based his assumption of future events:

"The Soviet Union will offend England somewhere and then the transatlantic brothers (the Americans)—so ardently loved by the British—will build with indignation and come to the rescue."

The article, written by the academic Eugene Taro, said that Russia would not allow a repetition of 1941 and would "not permit even a most modern preparation for an attack on our borders."

Request For Rent Increase Juggled

Washington, March 12—(P)—Congress, allergic to election-year hot potatoes, juggled a request today for a mandatory 15 per cent hike in the general rent level of residential property throughout the nation.

The recommendation was presented to the house banking committee by Representatives of Rental Property Owners who argued that such a boost is essential in justice to the property owners.

They urged that provision for a compulsory increase be written into pending legislation to continue OPA price controls for another year after June 30.

A spot check of committee members indicated eagerness to any such blanket increase, which obviously would affect a host of rent-paying voters.

Refiners Discuss With OPA Proposed Hike In Crude Price

Washington, March 12—(P)—An OPA-authorized increase of ten cents a barrel for crude oil cannot be absorbed by the oil refining industry, refiners said today.

OPA, announcing the increase last week, said it foresaw no change in retail prices for petroleum products such as gasoline and fuel oil. The OPA said that refiners would not be allowed to increase prices.

Refinery officials yesterday met with J. H. Reppert, associate director of OPA's fuel price division, and Reppert reported an other meeting was scheduled for today.

Organization Candidates In Both Parties Face Challenges

Harrisburg, March 12—(P)—Organization candidates for major offices in both Republican and Democratic parties face challenges from independents today, with the biggest scramble for the Republican nomination for governor.

When the State Election Bureau last night stopped receiving nominations for the May 21 primary election, Attorney General James H. Duff, the slated GOP candidate for governor, found three independents opposing him.

Auto Workers Oppose Price Hike In Cars

Washington, March 12—(P)—A CIO-United Auto Workers official blasted today at OPA's plans for new-car price increases, saying this means "not a bulge in the price line but an explosion."

"OPA," said Donald Montgomery, UAW consumer counsel, "plans to give price increases to the auto industry, then they'll be dishing them out by the bucket."

Montgomery made these statements to a reporter after OPA announced that higher prices are on the way for Chrysler, Ford and Hudson cars. These companies applied for increases to offset pay boosts granted under the administration's wage-price formula.

Milk, butter and gasoline also are on the list of items on which pressure is being applied to OPA for higher prices.

Until the new car prices are announced for the three firms, they and their dealers must continue to sell cars at current ceilings, but they can require an agreement that customers will pay the increase when it is put into effect.

An OPA official who asked to remain anonymous estimated that the price hike for manufacturers probably will not exceed three percent (or $45 on a $1,500 model), and he predicted that dealers (Turn to Page Eleven)

FUNERAL RITES FOR HARRIS ON THURSDAY

Pittsburgh, March 12—(P)—Solemn high mass for former state Senator Frank J. Harris, for nearly 40 years a leading figure in western Pennsylvania politics, the entertainment world and in business, will be held at 10 a. m. Thursday in St. Philip's church, Crafton.

Burial will be in the family plot in Calvary cemetery.

Harris, 65, died yesterday after several months illness.

YOUNG TRAFFIC VICTIM

Pittsburgh, March 12—(P)—Police reported John T. Teeters, 7, was fatally injured when struck by an auto last night on the Boulevard of the Allies.

OPA officials said spokesmen for the refineries had stated reasons why gasoline and fuel oil prices must go up, but asserted no decision was reached, and that none would be forthcoming for some time.

The increase of crude oil prices is not yet effective, bunt OPA said it plans to make the increase legal late in March.

Refinery spokesmen said an increase in crude oil prices would necessitate an increase in petroleum products because wage boosts of 15 percent already have absorbed all extra revenue.

CONNALLY SUGGESTS NEW BIG THREE MEETING TO DISCUSS WORLD ISSUES

BITUMINOUS WAGE PARLEY IS LAUNCHED

Election of Officers and Submission of Reports First Business Before Conference

DEMANDS ARE SECRET

Washington, March 12—(P)—A national bituminous wage conference, requested by John L. Lewis for presentation of post-war wage demands, convened today.

Ezra Van Horn, of Cleveland, chairman of the Bituminous Operators Negotiating Committee, was nominated by Lewis to be permanent conference chairman.

Lewis, president of the AFL United Mine Workers, described Van Horn as having served through the years "with distinction and eminent fairness to the joint contracting parties."

The conference heard immediately Lewis' notice, under provisions of the contract, of intention to terminate the present agreement April 1.

The conference did not hear at once Lewis' demands on the operators, but proceeded with election of officers and hearing reports from the credentials and proceedings committees.

Charles O'Neill, the operators' chairman in the actual negotiations, nominated United Mine Workers' Secretary - Treasurer Thomas Kennedy for conference secretary, with Joseph Ardigo, assistant, and Jon T. Jones, secretary pro tempore. All are mine workers' officials.

O'Neill nominated Martin L. Markel, secretary of the Somerset County (Pa.) Coal Operators Association, for sergeant at arms, with Clarence Donaldson, vice president of UMW District 2, as assistant.

Lewis kept secret just what wage demands he has for the mine owners.

On the outcome of the negotiations may depend whether the nation will have a soft coal strike on its hands April 1 to add to its other reconversion headaches.

The United Mine Workers' chairman was ready to open discussions with the mine owners, but first he scheduled an eleven-hour meeting with the 250 members of UMW's policy committee for last review of the demands to be presented.

By putting off final action until minutes before he read the demands to a "Town Meeting" of the industry, Lewis added the element of suspense to the proceedings.

An assortment of demands of the UMW's 31 district conventions had to be sifted down to be presented on an industry-wide basis.

Officer With Erie Fugitive Reports Delay

Erie, March 12—(P)—Return of Mike Dominic, 28, of Erie, to face charges of murder in the March 5 death of Robert Fisher, 32-year-old ex-sailor, will be delayed a day or two officials learned today.

Sgt. Willard Schauer of the Erie police who went to Savannah, Ga., to bring back Dominic and Miss Violet Eleanor Tarbell, 27, of Erie, held as a material witness, reported his car had broken down and that he could not return until repairs are made.

Dominic and Miss Tarbell were arrested at Savannah by FBI Agent D. K. Brown on a charge of "unlawful flight."

Meanwhile, the investigation of the death of the ex-sailor, whose bullet-pierced body was found in a shallow grave near the municipal golf course, resulted in a fourth arrest.

Mrs. Millie Thomas of Erie was ordered held without bond by Alderman William Heister on a charge of being an accessory in Fisher's death. Mrs. Thomas is a (Turn to Page Eleven)

Peron Strengthens Lead In Argentina

Buenos Aires, March 12—(P)—The Association of Professional and Cultural Organizations which supported Dr. Jose P. Tamborini for president conceded his defeat today by Col. Juan D. Peron.

Peron further strengthened his commanding position by taking a lead in Tucuman province, until now held by Tamborini. The popular vote count was Peron 2,630, Tamborini 2,585.

Peron already has captured 66 electoral votes and, should he hold his present advantage in other districts, he would have a total of 216 electoral votes. Only 189 are needed to win. Tamborini has won 20 electoral votes and is leading in districts having 140. His 160 total is 29 less than needed to win.

Pittsburgh, March 12—(P)—Assistant U. S. Attorney George Mashank said today that a federal grand jury investigating sugar rationing violations has indicted Morris Cohen, 42, of Pittsburgh, and Sam Snider, 35, of Erie.

Mashank said the two men were each indicted on two counts—receiving and concealing stolen government property and conspiracy to receive and conceal stolen government property.

Yank Who Gave Blood To Tojo In Politics

Harrisburg, March 12—(P)—John A. Archinal, the former army staff sergeant who gave his blood to save the life of former Premier Tojo of Japan last September, is out for the Democratic nomination for the state house of representatives.

The 39-year-old Allentown bartender filed his nomination petitions with the elections bureau yesterday.

Friend Says Goering Was Against Purge

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Nuernberg, March 12—(P)—Paul Koerner, intimate of Hermann Goering since 1926, told the international military tribunal today the former reichsmarshal intervened against the Nazi party purge 12 years ago and that he created concentration camps only to "re-educate" enemies of the state.

Koerner was Goering's secretary for many years and once was secretary of state for Prussia. He testified that when the purge was carried out in 1934 Goering "went at once to the fuhrer and told him innocent people were being killed and it must be stopped and it was."

He said Goering founded the concentration camps, but turned them over to Heinrich Himmler in 1934 on Hitler's orders. Goering also attempted to stop a Jewish pogrom in 1938, Koerner testified.

Col. Berndt von Brauchitsch, son of Field Marshal Walther von Brauchitsch and former adjutant to Goering, testified he considered Hitler's order prescribing lynch law for downed Allied fliers justified, but that the order was not enforced by the German air force.

The tribunal granted defendant Franz von Papen the right to submit to King Gustaf V. of Sweden questions relative to the former Nazi diplomat's claim that he repeatedly sought the monarch's intervention in the cause of European peace.

The tribunal opened the day with a closed session in which it was reported the justices lectured prosecution and defense attorneys about delays in the conduct of the trial.

The incident is the latest in a long series involving Soviet-American relations and bringing to light sharp difference in their approaches to critical world problems.

On another of the diplomatic fronts involving the United States and Russia, the state department yesterday made public a note denying Russian contentions that the United States was trying to play a lone hand in influencing the make up of the Bulgarian government.

Also last night the department released the text of its note to France on Spain. This communication, however, left the way open for reconsideration of the American position provided there is new evidence on which to base a case against Franco in the Security Council.

Dairyman Says Farmers Need Help To Meet Food Shortage

Chicago, March 12—(P)—D. T. Carlson, president of the American Dairy Association, said today there must be immediate government policies "to help the American farmer save the world from starvation" in what he termed "the most critical food situation in the history of the modern world."

"The world looks to America for salvation from famine," Carlson told ADA directors in a prepared address, "and sees a nation whose milk output is dwindling, whose cows are being forced into slaughterhouses, whose sons are leaving the soil—and whose farmers are promised only more of the same kind of thinking that brought this tragedy about."

"Certainly the must share the American food that is now in such short supply. But just as certainly we must end once and for all the twisted philosophy of sharing scarcity that has caused these shortages."

The dairy leader asserted American farmers cannot meet goals of dairy production under current government policies. He emphasized:

"The deadly philosophy of 'too little and too late' that repeatedly almost lost the war is now threatening the peace." Carlson (Turn to Page Eleven)

Prohibition Party Plans Full Slate

Harrisburg, March 12—(P)—The Prohibition party today slated James A. W. Killip, of Philadelphia, as its candidate for governor in the May 21 primary and became the first minor party group in more than a decade to earn the right to select its nominees at the primary election.

The remainder of the party ticket includes: Robert G. Burnham, Corsica poultryman, for lieutenant governor, and Charles Palmer, Glenolden attorney, for secretary of internal affairs.

The state elections bureau declared as insufficient the petitions for U. S. senator filed by Dale H. Larn, Stroudsburg real estate dealer, but Killip, the party's state chairman, said a sticker campaign will be conducted for him in the primary election.

"Prohibition sentiment is booming," Killip said in a statement. "Hundreds of dregs, encouraged by the Prohibition party's success in attaining a place on the primary ballot, are leaving the old parties and registering Prohibition."

Americans Are Urged To Eat Less To Help Save A Half Billion Victims of Famine

Washington, March 12—(P)—The best-fed nation in the world heard a plea today to cut its food consumption by 40 per cent in wheat and 20 per cent in fats to help save a half-billion famine victims overseas.

The appeal of President Truman's famine emergency committee said such a mighty, volunteer effort on the part of Americans was needed for the next 120 days to tide the hungry abroad over "a terrible four months until the next harvest."

The committee offered almost two-score suggestions on how the public could cooperate in the food-conservation campaign. They ranged from a 10 percent cut in the weight of bakers' bread to top-less sandwiches and open-faced pies.

The smaller bread loaf suggestion prompted department of agriculture officials to say that no

Washington, March 12—(P)—Former President Herbert Hoover said today supplies of cereal now available to avert starvation in war-torn countries are 8,000,000 to 9,000,000 tons short of minimum needs.

Hoover, he told a news conference that he believed all but 1,000,000 or 2,000,000 tons of the deficit could be made up through reduced consumption in the United States and other western hemisphere countries.

Hoover is honorary chairman of President Truman's emergency committee which has appealed to the United States to cut its use of wheat by 40 per cent and of fats by 20 per

The appeal to America to respond to "a great human cry" for salvation was issued by the famine committee last night. "The world faces a gigantic emergency of famine among 500,000,000 people (Turn to Page Eleven)

NOTED PRIEST DIES

Scranton, March 12—(P)—Right Rev. Monsignor Hugh P. Henry, 83, of the Philadelphia Roman Catholic Archdiocese, died today at the home of a relative, Bernard McGinnis, Jessup, where he had been residing since he retired from active church work.

The incident is the latest in a long series involving Soviet-American relations and bringing to light sharp difference in their approaches to critical world problems.

Sugar Scarcity To Continue Into 1947

Washington, March 12—(P)—Sugar will remain scarce the rest of this year and perhaps into 1947, says the agriculture department.

It stressed this despite some prospective ration increases announced by the OPA yesterday. These apply to such users as bakers and hotels and restaurants and not to households.

Here's the sugar ration situation: Home canning—Spare stamp nine in ration book four and in new sugar books became valid yesterday for five pounds. OPA expects to validate another home canning coupon in June or July for perhaps another five pounds.

Regular household allotment—Sugar stamp 39 in book four is good for five pounds through April (Turn to Page Eleven)

ALL HARMONIOUS ON DETROIT LABOR FRONT

Detroit, March 12—(P)—All was apparently harmonious on the CIO United Auto Workers negotiations front today as conferences continued in the 112-day General Motors strike and part of the union's Ford contract faced possible changes.

Despite the "Reuther-for-president" drive that seemed to be gaining momentum among UAW-CIO locals, both Walter P. Reuther, now a union vice president, and President R. J. Thomas refrained from comment on the subject and insisted they were "unanimous in all action now being taken to negotiate a strike settlement."

Meanwhile the union's National Ford Council, while stating its objection to certain clauses dealing with productivity and other issues in the contract with the Ford Motor Co., expressed full confidence in the Ford negotiating committee headed by Richard T. Leonard.

Scene of the blast was a sand pumping hole in a valley about two miles east of this petroleum producing city of 19,000. Dailey said he had found parts of fuses and dynamite caps there.

The consensus after it was learned there had been no powder mill or oil well explosions, was that a meteor had disintegrated.

The explosion occurred about 8:32 p. m., rocked buildings in a 10-mile radius, and left behind a gray smoke, a sulphurous odor and some particles which resembled fused metal.

Scores of phone calls from the area flooded public and newspaper offices. A motorist about half way between Kane and Bradford said the explosion shook his car so that the steering wheel was almost yanked out of his hands. R. B. Bromley, of Derrick City, 10 miles east of here, said windows shook in his home.

A party of five newspapermen spent several hours driving over Bradford and adjacent sections, trying to locate the center of the disturbance.

Their determinations were that it centralized over a point on Washington avenue extension, two miles outside the city limits, where they said a strong odor of sulphur was evident and residents reported (Turn to Page Eleven)

SAYS SOVIET UNION IS NOT SEEKING WAR

Chairman of Senate Foreign Relations Committee Sounds Optimistic Note On Future Relations

NEED FOR PLAIN TALK

Washington, March 12—(P)—Senator Connally (D-Tex.) called today for a new Big Three meeting to discuss "in language clear and plain and, if need be, blunt," issues he said otherwise may blaze into world friction.

The chairman of the senate foreign relations committee sounded an optimistic note on future relations with Russia—provided they are based on such plain speaking.

But he told his colleagues in a prepared address that Russia must understand that while she has the unchallenged right to maintain any form of government she wants, "these rights do not extend beyond her boundaries."

Connally called for maintenance by this country of "an adequate army, a superior navy and a superlative air force."

These, he said, would back up American determination not only to resist aggression by arms, but to "oppose aggression by economic or political pressure or maneuver."

Pinning his hopes on the United Nations, the Texas senator said that so long as Russia, Great Britain and the United States "remain loyal to the obligations of the charter and adjust differences as they arise, there will be no peace."

But, he added, "those who want peace must not commit acts that tend to provoke war."

Expressing the belief that the Soviet Union does not want war, Connally said he believes mutual understanding and cooperation with Russia "are not insuperable."

"Russia can have peace by supporting and cooperating with the United Nations," he declared. "Her responsibility is great because her power is great."

Connally's speech, which he said he discussed briefly in advance with Secretary of State Eymes, carried on the newly-instituted policy of plain-speaking about Russia (Turn to Page Eleven)

High Court Rules Against Picketing

Philadelphia, March 12—(P)—The supreme court of Pennsylvania today reversed an Allegheny county court ruling and directed the lower court to issue an injunction restraining the CIO-Electrical Workers Union from mass picketing at Westinghouse Electric Company plants in the Pittsburgh area.

It majority opinion written by Justice Horace Stern, the court held that Westinghouse "produced convincing evidence of irreparable damage, not because of any destruction of, or by injury to, its plants but because of the interruption of vital activities necessary by way of preparation for future business and production."

The company had stated at a hearing before the high tribunal that it forced possible loss of a hundred million dollars in potential business because of the mass picketing.

A dissenting opinion was written by Justice Charles Alvin Jones.

It was the second time within a month that the state supreme court ruled against mass picketing. It previously upheld an Allegheny county court order enjoining members of United Steelworkers of America (CIO) from mass picketing at the Homestead plant of Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation.

Huge Blast of Dynamite Is Cause of McKean Explosion

Bradford, March 12—(P)—A jarring explosion near Bradford last night was traced by Constable Darb Dailey today to an oil well where he said a three-foot wall of dirt and debris had been flung in a huge circle by a forceful blast of dynamite.

Citizens thought after the blast at about 8:52 last night that it might have been caused by disintegration of a meteor. It rocked left behind a gray smoke, a sulphurous odor and some particles resembling fused metal.

Dailey said the explosion "in which more than 30 sticks of dynamite must have been used" probably was the work of jokesters who had dynamite left over from normal operations and decided to blow up the extra sticks in one big explosion.

Scene of the blast was a sand pumping hole in a valley about two miles east of this petroleum producing city of 19,000. Dailey said he had found parts of fuses and dynamite caps there.

Police yesterday afternoon were quite active and a truck containing 12,000 pounds of powder was stopped as it came through the borough without a permit. It was decided to permit the truck to proceed as the driver was ignorant of the provisions here for the passage of such cargoes. Ralph Knapp, Euclid avenue reported that someone had stolen a service revolver from him and last night police took George Lundquist to a local hospital.

PREPARING FOR OPENING

Workmen have been at work for some time past in the store room in the Stein Block on Pennsylvania avenue west making alterations, etc., for the Ross Sales and Service Company. The store room has been completely redecorated and special shelving, display counters, etc., arranged all of a modernistic and attractive appearance. The change makes the display room one of the most pleasing to be found in the city. The firm is preparing to open soon with a line of electrical appliances, radios, refrigerators, etc.

Huth Will Be A Candidate

Lloyd M. Huth, of Oil City, filed a nominating petition yesterday on the Democratic ticket for the office of congressman from the 19th district, according to an Associated Press dispatch received here today.

Huth, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Huth, 1014 W. 1st street, served during the war in the Philippines and was a prisoner of the Japs for three years.

Mrs. Joseph Soff and daughter, Joan, returned to their home in Philadelphia Sunday night after visiting for some time with the former's sister, Mrs. Frank Gerardi, 1414 Allegheny avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kottcamp, 18 Russell street were called to Harrisburg, this morning by the death of Mrs. Kottcamp's mother, Mrs. M. E. Grimm. Mrs. Grimm was 95 years of age, widow of the late Rev. J. Luther Grimm. Interment will be at the Druid Ridge Cemetery, Baltimore, Maryland.

J. A. Johnson spent Monday in the Buffalo market in the interests of his men's and boys' wear store.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Borg left yesterday for Coral Gables, Fla., where they will visit Captain Paul Borg and family for a month.

HAS ENVIABLE RECORD

Dr. L. E. Chapman, of this city who is again a candidate for State Senator on the Republican ticket will not be opposed at the coming primaries by either a Republican or Democratic opponent. He has made a splendid record in the service of the people of this district and with the presentation of his name at the primaries it will be the 21st time his name has appeared on a ballot, as he was at various times a member of the school board, burgess, and state senate. This is certainly an enviable record as he has never been defeated any time he has sought office.

OPA Has Simplified Sugar Problem For Housewives

Pittsburgh, March 12 (Special)—Here is a sweeter angle to the perplexing sugar problem than you have been reading about during the last several years.

In order to simplify the obtaining of rationing sugar—from now until October 31—the Pittsburgh District Office of Price Administration, which covers the area from Pittsburgh to Erie and Altoona, today announced the conditions under which rationing sugar may be obtained.

Spare Stamp Number Nine—in Ration Book Number Four—is good, as of Monday, March 11, for five pounds of sugar, which is to be used exclusively for canning purposes. All the housewife need do—under the new regulation—is to present Spare Stamp Number Nine to the grocer.

This means that the confusion, worry, inconvenience and frustration which marked the distribution of rationing sugar last year has been eliminated. It will not be necessary, during this canning season, to make application—as was the practice last year.

Persons who have received their ration books only recently as is the case with returned soldiers particularly—will find their sugar stamp in the single—sheet sugar ration book issued to them in lieu of War Ration Book Number Four. Those holding the Number Four Ration Book are advised to retain the book now in their possession even though they may have used the last coupon marked "sugar".

From present indications, it appears unlikely that the home canning allowance will be more than ten pounds per ration book owner. The uncertainty of the volume of the Cuban production, amount to be held for war-stricken areas and other probabilities have forced OPA to make this announcement, in regard to quantity.

Five pounds of consumer sugar for each stamp—to cover a four-month period—is still the order. Housewives, therefore, are urged to continue to budget their sugar allotment—so that the rationing sugar will be used as intended. The next regular sugar stamp—the number of which will be announced later—will be validated May 1.

OPA explained that—the new method of issuing rationing sugar, which formerly was applied for at local ration boards, had been eliminated due to the reduction of approximately 5600 Boards throughout the country to 1885. And, for the further reason that local Boards have not been handling rationing functions since the first of this year, when the distribution of sugar, the only remaining rationed item, was brought under control of OPA District Offices.

Under the new—current Monday—system, there should be a minimum—or no delay—in furnishing the estimated 35,000,000 housewives of this country for obtaining of the sugar necessary for canning.

And, although canning periods in different parts of the country vary, it was deemed advisable to make the new system general in order to eliminate possible confusion.

But—OPA cautions—that the Pittsburgh District housewife obtains her rationing sugar in March and uses it indiscreetly—may try to place her September and October rationing sugar now available to other uses—and then learns that—when fruits and vegetables suitable for canning come up later in the year—she will have already used her valuable rationing stamp.

hearts and shifted to the nine of diamonds, which declarer trumped. A heart was ruffed in dummy and another diamond ruffed.

The ace and king of clubs were cashed, then declarer ruffed the seven of hearts with dummy's king of spades—and East made his first mistake. Instead of undertrumping the king, he discarded the queen of diamonds.

Now declarer cashed the ace of diamonds, then led a small diamond from dummy, and again made the mistake of ruffing with the jack of spades. All the declarer had to do was to throw away a small club, and there was no play that would prevent him from making the ace-ten-seven of spades.

JUST A SUGGESTION

Establishment of a permanent camp by 4-H Club workers in this county as suggested in the Times-Mirror last week might be aided if a little investigation relative to the use of one of the Prisoner of War camps located nearby were made. It is understood that the PW's will all be shipped home within the next few weeks and the camps will then be vacant. A little enterprise on the part of the local Chamber of Commerce might secure one of the camps for the 4-H Clubbers. The camps are in good shape, well equipped with various facilities for use of a large number with recreation field, etc. The one at Red Bridge would be especially adaptable due to its location on Kinzua Creek where bathing, fishing and other facilities would be afforded.

The Warren County Girl Scouts have a 30 year lease on the old transient camp at Grunderville and such a lease might well be secured by the 4-H Clubs. Located in one of the finest section of the Allegheny Forest the camp offers much to those who would have a vacation close to nature in one of the finest spots in the whole National Forest.

GIVE US MORE PAN FISH

During the past few days thousands of legal sized trout have been placed in the streams of the county much to the joy of those fly fishers and the boys who argue over the "wet and dry" ones. But to the average guy who takes his fish pole and hies away to the banks of a stream where a shady tree affords a fine retreat and a place to sit while he fishes trout don't mean a thing.

This fellow with a yen to fish for the luscious finned things that are glorified in a frying pan don't give a hoot for or the gamey bass. He wants to fish and catch many any thing he can eat. Blue gills, sunnies, horned dace, suckers, calico bass and bullheads are all grist for his mill. It's fun to fish for a lot of fellows who do not desire to embrace a marathon in their sport and the more panfish in the streams the more licenses will be bought by the run of mine fishermen. It's something for the boys in charge of stream stocking to think about in planting fish—so lets put in a million, more or less, of panfish. It's the boys with the angletworm and the old bamboo pole who would really be glad to help pay the freight.

Warren's radio hams are looking forward with keen interest to the loosening of the strings that have bound up their activities during the war. The Communications bureau will make additional wave lengths available to the hams soon. Valiant work has been done by the amateurs in the past and what an era lies ahead of them!

This is an important week for all Warren county residents—get that income tax report off and make out your check for the Warren county campaign for the American Red Cross.

Caution the children to keep off the lawns during the next week or two. It'll help make the yards more attractive later.

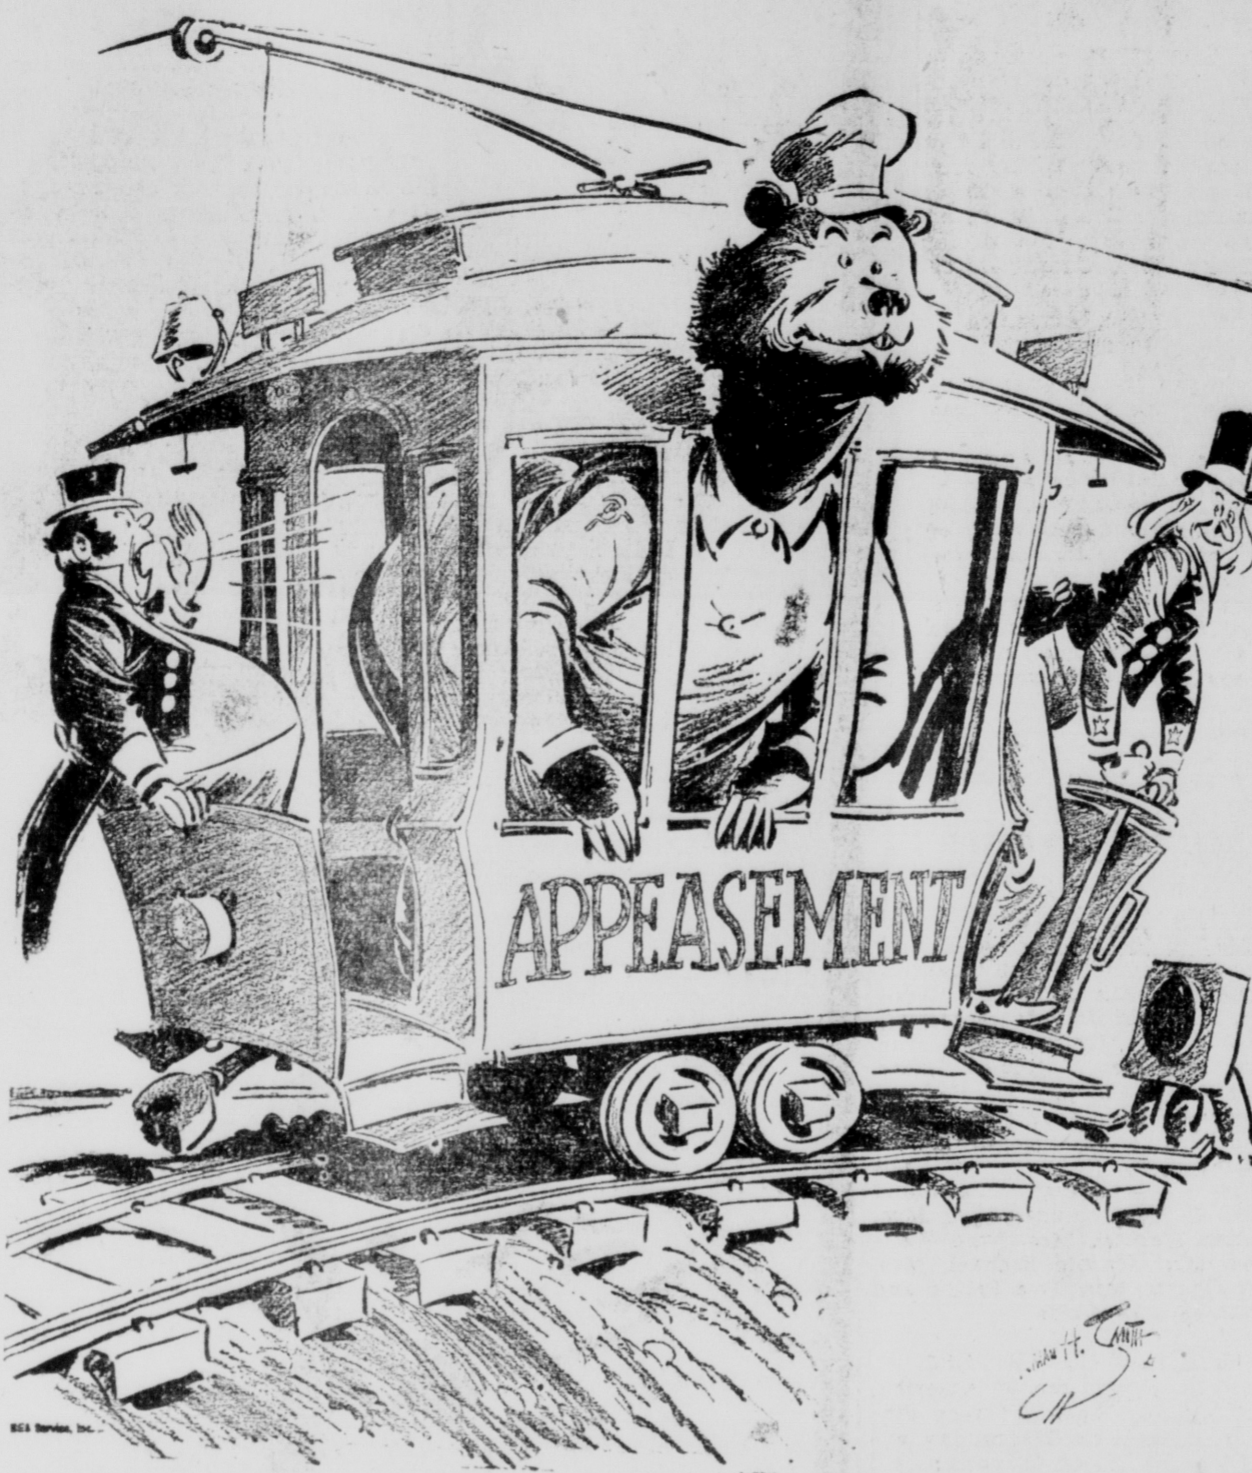

If your arguments are with yourself, you're bound to win—and so is everybody else.

LENTEN SERMONETTE

By REV. A. K. BERLIN

Evangelical Mission Covenant Church, Route 3, Sugar Grove
"For Demas hath forsaken me."—II Timothy 4:10.
This is the Lenten season. One purpose of its observance is to remind the weak, the lukewarm and the backslider. The Apostle Paul was a prisoner for the Gospel's sake at Rome. Just when he needed a warm-hearted friend, Demas forsaken him because he loved this present world.
Demas had made a good profession. Paul speaks of him as a fellow-worker in the Gospel. He had enjoyed fellowship with those who had known Christ in the flesh. Great opportunities of service were his, but in a time when his consistent testimony would mean so much, he fell away.
What caused his desertion? The scripture says, "having loved this present world." As we study his life closely, we see that it was not only that he loved the things of this world, there was a deeper reason. He had neglected to attend to his spiritual life. He had fallen away from Christ before he had fallen away from the aged Apostle Paul. The love of the world was the outward result of the decay in his spiritual life.
Have you, like Demas, forsaken the Christian life? You say you are too busy to go to church, to read your Bible, or help along in the cause of Christ. Is that the real reason? Be honest with yourself. Is it not true that the love of the perishable things of the world is uppermost in your mind? Is not this the reason the Saviour has grown cold? What are you going to do about it this Lenten season? Will you not turn from your wicked ways and with penitence seek the forgiving grace of your Saviour?

WASHINGTON—In the hurly-burly of the UNO Assembly meeting in London, with Russia and England postnoting each other, little attention was given to the fact that the UNO set up a new International Court of Justice.

In a few weeks now, a suave, graying career diplomat will leave with his family for The Hague as one of the 15 judges of the new court. He is Green H. Hackworth, considered the State Department's foremost authority on international law.

The new court will be almost a duplicate of the World Court of the League of Nations. Although the United States was not a member of that court, Americans did sit on the court, and Charles Evans Hughes, when he was secretary of state, appointed Hackworth as one of the judges.

In his career, Hackworth has represented the United States in a score of international conferences, including the historic San Francisco session where UNO was born.

The new court, like the old one, is a big favorite with the smaller nations and one case already has been filed before it, the century-old border dispute between Guatemala and British Honduras.

The court will handle only cases submitted to it voluntarily by two disputing nations, the nations previously having agreed to abide by the decision of the court.

The big nations rarely took major disputes to the old court, but the smaller ones found it much cheaper than going to war. Many treaties were signed with a clause that any differences arising out of them would be taken to the World Court. The new court will now get these.

Eventually all of the 15 judges will sit for nine years. To get a rotation started, five of the present ones are to serve for three years, five for six and five for nine. Judge Hackworth drew straws for his length of term. He drew the middle-length one—six years.

NOT since V-J Day has so much midnight oil been burned at the White House as during those conferences which led to the new wage-price policy. Some of the sessions, with President Truman leading the discussions, lasted until after 2 a.m.

Every time a vacancy occurs here in a major appointive post, the name of Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas is kicked around by the forecasters.

The vacancy that occurred when Harold L. Ickes stepped out of the Department of Interior was no exception. A number of political predictors had the Justice as good as in. Some said flatly that he had the backing of Democratic National Committee Chairman Robert Hannegan and other high party leaders.

There's a good reason. Top party officials would be very happy to see Justice Douglas in a post where he would have freedom to air his political views. What they are after is an opportunity to groom some young blood (Douglas is only 48) for future Presidential races.

The party's only two seriously considered Presidential possibilities now are President Truman for re-election and Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace. Where will that leave the party in 1952?

Start Sweet Peas Indoors To Insure Long Harvest

Sweet peas should flower before the weather turns hot, so an early start will prolong their flowering season. There was a time when experts thought they should not be transplanted, but this is not true of modern varieties which may be started indoors in late winter or early spring, February being a good month.

Take care in preparing pots or flats, using good soil in a container which allows for perfect drainage. Fill to about an inch and a half from the top, and add a layer of reasonably fine, not sifted, builder's sand, washing it first to eliminate vegetable matter.

Seed should be pressed down into this sand to a depth of half an inch. Finally, firm the sand over the seed and water thoroughly, allowing it to drain for an hour or more. Sweet pea seed has a tendency to rot, but if it has adequate drainage and is set in sand this danger is minimized.

Now set your pot or flat in a warm, dark place, where the temperature is maintained at 60 to 65 degrees, and cover with a piece of glass. The glass should be removed daily and wiped; if the sand feels moderately dry, however, spray with tepid water. In ten to fifteen days the seeds will have germinated, and the temperature should be lowered to about 40 degrees, a few degrees at a time over a period of a week.

Keep the seedlings in this cool atmosphere continually, giving them plenty of light. These circumstances will allow for sturdy root growth at the expense of top growth which is not needed. When they are 4 inches tall, transplant three to a 3-inch pot or about 2 inches apart each way in a flat, keeping them out of the sun for a week to harden them to the new situation. Pinch out the tip of leading branch when 5 inches high. When danger of severe freezing is over, you can keep them in the cold frame until time to set in the garden.

BROADWAY

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK—I was watching Tommy Dorsey put his band through its bigtime brassy paces at the Terrace Room in Newark, which is a large palace of swing music on the Jersey side, hep-hep, and I marveled again, probably for the thousandth time, at the complete mastery the Sentimental Gentleman of Swing has over that very difficult instrument, the slush pump, or trombone as it is known in more inhibited circles.

Tommy was playing a pretty ballad which I hadn't heard before, and I asked Tommy's manager what it was. He called a guy from another table, sat him down and said: "Here's the fellow who wrote it—Sammy Stept."

The name of the song was "I Fall In Love With You Every Day," and all concerned were surprised I hadn't heard it, for it has been played on the air by most of the big bands and has been recorded by everyone from Perry Como to the smallest shots.

I ASKED Sammy how he could find so many different ways of saying "I love you," which naturally is the basis for most successful Tin Pan Alley ballads. Sammy has been twisting that old phrase for a good many years, and he is for the thousandth time only sorry that others beat him to the most simplified romantic expression of all as a title—"I Love You"—ASCAP says approximately 500 songs so titled have been copyrighted in the U. S. A. fellow named Edvard Hagerup Grieg and his lyricist, Richard Nordraak, back in the 1800s, used the title as "Ich Liebe Dich."

Sammy Stept has successfully translated "I Love You" in the titles of such of his hit tunes as "Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree With Anyone Else But Me," "Congratulations," "I'll Always Be In Love With You," which sold a million and a half copies, "That's My Weakness Now" and many more, which make him a verbal acrobat of romantic semantics. And a highly paid one, too.

SAMMY said that most of his titles come from sheer hard work, but that the title for "I Fall In Love With You Every Day" came as a completely lucky stroke.

"One night I tossed up the job of trying to think of a title and lyrics and decided to go get dinner over on the East Side in a little Russian restaurant. I sat down all by myself and started watching the people around me. Next to me was a couple, not particularly romantic looking, but I suppose looks don't mean much, as it turned out.

"This fellow was whispering, but I could hear him. I was just about to become bored with his conversation when he said to the girl: 'You know, I fell in love with you every day.'

"That was all I needed. The lyrics were in my head, complete, by the time I got home. I'm afraid it makes song writing look a bit too simple, but that's the way it happened. I wish it could come along as simply as that every time."

Exceptional Facilities Are Found at Auto Body Plant For Doing Complete Repair

March is a big month in the history of the Auto Body Shop as it was just 16 years ago this month that the busy business place was opened in this city by George Horsfield, proprietor and general manager. The business then was a comparatively small one but today through diligent work, honest service and strict attention to detail it is outstanding in its particular line.

Mr. Horsfield before coming to Warren had been for years with the Detroit Auto Body Company, of Jamestown, N. Y. This firm specialized in auto body work on the then fabricated cars and Mr. Horsfield was an expert in this work. On opening the Warren business the specialty was the making of touring car tops, of the fabricate materials on the then swanky cars. Side curtains, too, those pesky things that blew loose in every rain, were also given attention. With the advent of the enclosed car many wood working operations were called for and carried out successfully.

With the advent of the steel bodies car another big change was marked and new equipment and operations had to be installed and workmen trained. Due to the fact that traffic was increased then at a great rate a collision service was installed whereby the dents, kinks and accordion pleats could be removed from the bodies. This called for some specialized work and the Auto Body kept pace with the times.

Skilled workmen were added and trained especially in the operations of various features entering into the complicated task of ironing out the damaged bodies. New equipment was added to keep pace with the demands and the shop just prior to the outbreak of the war had a staff of 16 men who could accomplish wonders with a damaged car, making it appear almost new again.

War called workman after workman out of the shop but the demand was ever greater. Mr. Horsfield by hard work kept a skeleton crew and the men by co-operation endeavored to keep up with the demand. It was a hopeless case, however for cars kept being damaged only herculean efforts were able to keep many of them on the road. Scores were in storage at all times as workmen even by working long hours were unable to fill all demands. Finally with peace the skilled men began to return. Work was caught up and is now moving about on schedule. The workers when they return were surprised to see a handsome addition made to the plant. Builders had gone far even in the face of shortages as the auto body work was rated as an essential in keeping transportation on the highways.

The new addition conforms in style to the original plant. However it is sufficiently large to care for a mass of work. New mechanical devices installed can handle the largest truck to the modest Bantam. Chassis corrections can be made in a trick and all adjustments can be rapidly made. The new machinery is all now in operation and makes the plant one of the most complete and outstanding in western Pennsylvania.

Today the Auto Body is in reality four complete plants;—a Collision service; a frame and wheel shop; a complete upholstery shop and a refinishing shop. All are splendidly equipped. Glass can be installed in any make of car, upholstery done right and painting and refinishing of cars is made with such speed and fine work that owners are delighted. Each department is specialized for fast work and so well co-ordinated that all are enabled to render rapid, efficient work at the lowest rates commensurate with the work performed.

The policy adopted by Mr. Horsfield at the inception of his business life here of producing honest workmanship has paid dividends. The word of the Auto Body management is as good as their bond and such a reputation can only be built on fair and honest dealings with the thousands of customers who in the years gone have enjoyed the service of the company.

It is an interesting place this shop of the Auto Body. If you are interested in the work that is done on a car and would really like to see what might be done to your car in event of trouble you are invited to drop into and see just how a modern plant really operates.

WHY SALMON GO INLAND

Salmon return to their inland-stream breeding grounds to spawn because there is more oxygen there for their young. Dissolved oxygen is necessary to every inhabitant of the waters of the globe, and the young salmon requires a greater percentage than is present in the ocean.

"SHOVEL" ETIQUET

You are considered lazy or impolite if you set the bowl on the table when eating rice in China. It is kept in the hand, held with thumb and fingers, at mouth level, and the rice is pushed in with chopsticks.

ORIGIN OF GLASS CLINKING

The custom of clinking glasses originated in Roman days. Before a duel, each gladiator drank a glass of wine and, to guard against a poison being slipped into one of the glasses, it became a custom for the fighters to touch glasses and pour the wine from one to the other.

GREYHOUNDS HUNT BY EAR

OUR 16TH ANNIVERSARY

Inspection and Examination Dept.

To this division falls the important job of examining and making accurate estimates of each specific job. On an average, 85% of our work is done through the major insurance companies. Their adjusters are highly trained in this line, and we feel it is the quality of our work that assures this repeated business.

Before submitting an estimate we carefully check 387 various items on your car. This takes time and considerable effort on our part, but we know from experience this is the only way of assuring satisfaction. Another recommendation of this estimation system is the number of garages and individual dealers who come to us to secure the figures needed in their own work.

Assembly Department

This department has charge of removing and replacing all parts damaged beyond repair. This includes all sheet metal parts, such as fenders, hoods, doors, etc. We carry many of these parts in stock to assure our customers as speedy service as possible.

Our men have developed a great skill in this particular operation and their experience is your guarantee of satisfaction. Their manual skills are aided by special air hammers and a multitude of hydraulic devices of the latest design and manufacture. Their ability to rebuild a panel or fender, that to the owner seems hopeless, has saved our customers many dollars on many occasions.

To Our Many Customers

We want to thank you for the loyalty you have shown us in these past years. We regret exceedingly that due to the chaotic conditions that still exist, we can not always give you that prompt service for which we are noted.

YOUNGSVILLE NEWS

Youngsville, March 11—Major Gerald B. Russell, son of Mrs. Nore Russel and the late Lyman L. Russell of Youngsville, Pa., was recently decorated by the British government in Washington, D. C.

The British ambassador, the Earl of Halifax, conferred upon Major Russell, in the name of the King of England, the award of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire in the degree of Honorary Officer. The ambassador in presenting the award, stated that it was given in recognition of valuable service rendered during the war and in acknowledgment of the recipient's great contribution to the overall war effort and final victory. The citation accompanying the medal stated:

"From 1941 onward Major Russell served continuously in the Ordnance section, international division, becoming head of that section in April 1944. During the whole of that period he was consistently helpful in the handling of a large number of British problems which passed through his hands. In particular, as Chairman of the various conference groups within the Ordnance Section, he maintained a standard of efficiency which ensured a smooth flow of supplies against British demands."

Major Russell entered the army July 1942 as a first lieutenant and since that time has served continuously in the International Division of the Army Service Forces. On two occasions he has been assigned to temporary duty overseas. The first assignment was in London with the U. S. Executive of the London Munitions Assignment Board. His second assignment took him to Africa, Egypt, India, Ceylon and China.

No Delays In Receiving Tags
For New Cars

No longer will persons making their first purchase of an automobile be delayed in the use of their cars under a new law authorizing the immediate use of temporary tags. It was announced today by Claude S. Klugh, manager of the Pennsylvania Automotive Association, which represents automobile dealers throughout the Commonwealth.

"Previously," Mr. Klugh explained, "persons purchasing an automobile for the first time were forced to wait days, and even weeks, for a license plate permitting them to use their car."

Under the new law, sponsored by the Pennsylvania Automotive Association and passed by the 1945 session of the legislature, temporary cardboard tags will be issued immediately, eliminating the necessity of waiting until the permanent plates arrive, Mr. Klugh said. The tags would bear a number, the name of the Commonwealth, date of issue, date of expiration, make of car and manufacturer's serial number. Upon receipt of the annual registration plate, or at the expiration of 20 days regardless of whether or not the plate has been received, the temporary tag must be destroyed by the purchaser.

Stating that the majority of the surrounding states already have a means of making it possible for purchasers of first cars to use their automobiles immediately, Mr. Klugh said:

"In a state the size of Pennsylvania, having 13 per cent of the motor vehicle registration of the entire country, our motorists are entitled to at least as good, if not better service than motorists in adjoining states enjoy."

MILITARY FUNERAL SERVICE

A military funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist church of Youngsville in memory of Frank Walters of Irvine a recently discharged veteran of World War I who was killed when accidentally struck by a car between Youngsville and Irvine.

The service was attended by Veterans of Foreign Wars of Warren and by the Halgren Wilcox Post American Legion members from Youngsville and a large number of friends.

Rev. Dwight Jack, pastor of the Falconer Methodist church and former pastor of the Youngsville and Irvine churches gave the funeral talk. He was assisted by Rev. E. W. Chitester, present local pastor.

An appropriate and beautiful solo was sung by a Warren friend of Frank Walters. Mr. Walters served in several different theaters of the European war and since returning to America had been made very sad by the death of his mother.

Burial was made in the Westview Cemetery of Star Brick. All military rights were conducted at the grave by two veterans organizations to which the deceased was a member.

Beryl Helms, of Hartford City, Ind., driving through Muncie, failed to make a curve, ran up on the sidewalk killed a bystander, and crashed into the house of Frank Douglas. The irate Douglas chained the car to his house, as seen above, until he could collect damages.

Penn. Vikings Win First Games in Gold Medal Tourney

The Moose Club of St. Marys, Pa. Vikings of Jamestown, Pa. and the Vikings of Warren, Pa. are the winners of the first round of activity in the renewal of the annual Gold Medal Basketball tournament at the YWCA.

St. Marys upset the All-Penns Bradford in the opening encounter, 25-23; Sylvania, recently crowned City League champions, topped the Frewsburg Veterans, 25; and the Vikings of Jamestown edged the Mt. Jewett Veterans, 32-29.

A fair-sized attendance watched six teams line up for their respective engagements. The outstanding tilt of the night was the Marys-Bradford clash, both teams coming out with a physical struggle. In the second tilt, Sylvania proved itself champion once again by walking over Frewsburg, 25-11, in the third the Veterans put a stiff struggle before losing to the Vikings.

Games are scheduled again for Thursday, when three more tilts will be played. At seven o'clock, the Times-Mirror tangles in the Morton Club of Jamestown; at eight the Lloyd Smiths of Bradford battle the local others Wells outfit; and at nine, a feature attraction of the tournament is slated. O'Connors of Bradford will test the Bradford Stars in the Thursday night tilt. The All-Stars boast four members of the 1942 Bradford School team which advanced to the western PIAA finals.

On Friday, the Sugar Grove American Legion will match Blomst Furniture at 7:30, and at 8, the Sylvania Foresters of Blomst will meet an unnamed opponent.

Stewie Smith Breaks Eagle Tally Record

Youngsville's Eagle cagers, closing their season a week ago with a loss to Pleasantville, have recorded one of the most successful seasons in the school's history, and Artie Amann, in his first year as head coach, deserves a round of applause for his successful job there.

The Red and Whites turned in 15 winning performances during the season, while losing eight. The Eagles succeeded in getting into the Class B county playoff before being knocked out.

Big Stewie Smith, the towering Eagle center, broke a scoring record, set several years ago by Merle Welsh, by turning in a season total of 250 points. Ken Johnson and Dick Spencer ended in second and third places, respectively, in individual honors after a tight race throughout the season. Johnson totaled 179 and Spencer 178.

Williams Win At Garden Is Boomed by Fans

Philadelphia, March 12—(P)—Protesting fight fans heaved chairs into the ring and booed loud and loud as NBA champion Ike Williams was awarded a fourth round technical knockout over Eddie Giosa, of Philadelphia, last night.

Williams, Trenton, N. J. battler was awarded the decision by Referee Irving Kutcher last night at the Arena when Giosa—knocked down by a right hand blow at the end of round three—failed to answer the bell for the fourth stanza.

Kutcher said Giosa's manager, Fats Garry, asked permission for a five-minute rest for his fighter on grounds the Williams' punch was thrown after the bell rang ending the round.

Kutcher refused saying: "There is no rule allowing me to do that." Garry refused to let Giosa resume the fight in the fourth round.

The Philadelphia, a 4 to 1 underdog, was ahead on points in the first two rounds. Giosa, at 126½, weighed one-half pound more than the Trenton battler.

Chapter 2

"I was a good driver. He did no talking in the city traffic, but after they were out of that, and headed toward Pelham, he began: "Your Aunt Emma," he said. "Y'know—very remarkable woman. Very." "Is she?" said Di. politely. "Very!" he assured her. "She's a professor. And a doctor." "Oh!" "Psychology," he said. "And so on." He was silent for a time. "Did your father ever tell you anything about her?" "I think I remember his mentioning her," said Di. who remembered very well that her father had occasionally mentioned a sister who was, he had said, "hard as nails." "Well," said Di's uncle. "I hope you'll be happy now—with your own people." He spoke kindly enough, yet she thought, with a curious lack of warmth. "Is he old?" she thought. "Or just—battered?" And aloud she asked: "Are you—Father's younger brother?" "Yes!" said Di. "Several times." "Hm. I'm afraid Harvey didn't care much for the old man." "I'm afraid he didn't," said Di. "Of course," Uncle Peter went on, apologetically. "The old man's got his little weakness. . . . But he's a very remarkable man. Writes books, and so on. Very remarkable!" "Is he at your house?" "Not now. But he'll be coming, for a visit. Y'know, I think you'll like him."

A woman in a surgeon's gown came out, followed, in single file, by two children.

The woman had stopped, and was looking at him with a sort of steady scorn. Then she turned and pushed the two children gently back into the room they had come out of, closed the door on them, and advanced to Diana. "So this is Diana!" she said. "But Di was incapable of answering. She had caught a glimpse of those children's faces—pasty, yellowish faces, with blank, dull eyes, and loose mouths, hanging open. . . . "They're idiots!" she thought, appalled. Aunt Emma held out her hand, and Di took it, felt her fingers caught in a strong grasp. This aunt was shorter than herself, a rather dumpy little woman, with a plain enough face, yet there was something unusual about her; an assurance that was curiously impressive. "Show Diana a room," she said. "You'll understand, Diana, that I'm very busy. . . . Make yourself at home!" And with a pleasant smile she went into the room and closed the door. "What does she—do?" Diana asked her uncle, in a whisper. "Too deep for me!" he answered. "But—those children—?" "Don't ask me! I don't understand these things." "But I mean—" she went on, resolutely, "are they any—relation—?" "Oh, Lord, no!" he said. "Emma's adopted them, that's all." He opened a door. "Here's a room," he said, and hurrying on, opened another door. "And here's one—and here's one. Take your choice! They're all pretty much alike." "So they were; bare hotel bedrooms, close and dusty, with striped beds." "Well, this one, thank you!" she said, taking the one furthest from that in which those children were.

Grow Border of Annuals For Vivid Color Accent

Plan for a Summer Border to Flower from Seed in Sixty Days.

Modern annual flowers have everything—color, size, beauty of form, fragrance, abundance of bloom and long season of flowering. Even a few packets of seed a garden can be grown in a matter of weeks this spring.

For a new, or rented home, where a quick effect is demanded, nothing can compare with annuals. And many an established garden depends upon beds and borders of annuals for the principal accent in the landscape picture because of their vivid coloring, and long season.

There is a place for a garden like the one illustrated in almost every home grounds. Be generous with the space allotted to it. A planting of annuals should not only beautify the grounds, but provide cut flowers for the house, so be sure of an abundant supply.

In the plan suggested, all colors are used in well balanced proportion. Tall flowers are placed in the background, with the lower growing ones in front. Plants for such a garden can be started in a seed-box, and moved to the garden when they are large enough; or seed can be sown directly in which case the plants should be thinned out, so that each has room to develop its full size.

If such a border can be viewed from a window, or made near a terrace or porch, enjoyment of it will be enhanced. A bird bath or small pool, placed as a focal point at the center of balance, will help complete the design.

It is essential that a garden such as this shall have full sun. Select a place where sunshine is assured, and there are no roots of shrubs or trees to compete with the flowers for food.

Plant food should be spread over the area at the rate of 4 pounds to 100 square feet and dug into the soil at least four inches deep. This will place it where the roots of the plants will find it when they have begun to grow well.

HERE, THERE, AND ABOUT

For the first time in five years, Bradford failed to walk away with District Nine northern section honors. "Buff" Munn, former local policeman, was pictured in a recent Rotary Magazine with his group of Knot-Hole baseballers of Kane. . . . Dick Finley, former WHS star guard, played the season with a service team in Europe. Says Dick, "I really have to step to keep up with those boys", and so you know that the outfit was a first class team. . . . Louis Friell, an old schoolmate of Dragon Coach Joe Massa at Edinboro, picks Warren to win over Sharpsville Friday. And he should know, for he's a Sharpsville resident. . . . If the Blue and White eagles cop a win Friday, they will be one of 11 teams remaining in the state playoff elimination. . . . DON'T FORGET TO GET YOUR MEMBERSHIP TO THE SPORTS BOOSTER ASSOCIATION. Playground Is Planned For Sheffield Kids

Sheffield, March 11—A meeting was held at the High School Thursday evening with representatives of all town organizations present. Discussion was held on the possibilities of developing and financing playground facilities for the children of Sheffield.

A committee was appointed to look over and study the work which must be done to develop available sites in town. The committee also was instructed to inquire into the financing of such a project.

Many neighboring communities have developed and financed such projects with much success. Another meeting will be held at the High School on Thursday evening March 21st at 7:30 when the committee will report on its investigations.

All persons who were present at last Thursday's meeting are urged to be present, along with anyone else who is interested in seeing something in the line of recreation facilities be developed for the young folks of Sheffield.

Chief Munn Is Cited For His Safety Work

Gordon Munn, former Lieutenant of Warren police and now chief of police at Kane is making a record. He was recently commended over the radio for checking juvenile delinquency in Kane in a recent issue of the Kane Republican the following appeared relative to his traffic work:

Police Chief Gordon Munn has received congratulations for Kane Borough from the State Department of Highways for this community's record of no fatal traffic accidents in 18 months. . . . When Chief Munn checked on the fatal traffic record of Kane, he discovered that there has been no traffic death here for 27 months, far beyond the 18-month report. . . . Other state and national agencies have cited this community for its traffic record, claiming it is one of the very few boroughs of its size not having a traffic death for the 18-month period. . . . Last fatal accident here occurred October 4, 1943, when Mrs. Estella Weaver was fatally injured by a hit-run car on Bayard street—which was found later and the driver prosecuted. . . . Police now are endeavoring to keep this excellent record intact and are concentrating on speeders, stop-sign violators and other public nuisances. . . . Only yesterday the State Department of Revenue said that an increase of 84 highway deaths in January over the same month in 1945 was reported. . . . This is due, they said, to "speed, reckless driving combined with careless and indifferent walking."

Sgt. Benjamin Crooks, an instructor in photography the past two years in Denver, Colo., has been honorably discharged and recently arrived at his home here. Some time in the near future Sgt. Crooks, is entering a business enterprise. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crooks, Jr., of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Benton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whitford and family, Bradford, were dinner guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. James Pascarella and Thelma Anthony.

Mrs. Henry Larson, spending a week with the Paul Duntleys has returned to her home in Akeley.

Mrs. Clyde Gibson, Miss Gertrude Keller and Mrs. Lois Kightlinger, Warren, were recent callers of the G. A. Prues and Mrs. N. J. Caldwell.

The Young Peoples' group of the local Nazarene church held its "hard time" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith, the youngsters all appearing appropriately dressed for the occasion which was provocative of mirth. Number of Local Young Men Enlist in Regular U. S. Army

The following Warren Area men were accepted and enlisted in the Regular Army:

Robert L. Dehner, 115 Parker St. Army Air Forces, for three years.

Michael J. Elinski, Irvine, Corps of Engineers for three years.

Arthur R. Gertsch, Route 2, Warren, Quartermaster Corps for three years.

An additional authorization for enlistment of personnel in grades appropriate to training and experience is announced by Captain Grunzweig of the Warren Recruiting Office.

In general, the authorization provides for enlistment of certain specialists who received training and experience during the war and who had left the service early in the demobilization period, or for those who have not been eligible for enlistment in their former grades under other War Department directives in effect now.

This new policy allows men who have been honorably discharged from active service on or after May 12, 1945 to enlist in the grades qualified for by prior service in the Special Military Occupations listed in a War Department table.

Former Army personnel whose prior active service was in the status of Officer, Warrant Officer, or Flight Officer are also eligible under certain conditions for enlistment in an enlisted grade based on prior experience and service in the listed military occupational specialties.

A total of 378 job titles are listed in the table of Enlisted Grades authorized for personnel enlisting or reenlisting in the Regular Army based on experience and military occupational specialty at time of discharge. Typical ones are Crane Operator, Postal Clerk, Machinist, Motion Picture Projectionist, Stenographer, Welder, Accountant, Armorer, Finance Clerk, Radio Repairman, Amphibious Tractor Driver, Radio Operator, Light Weapons Non-Commissioned Officer, etc. This list is extensive and includes a good portion of the Military Occupation Specialties in all branches of the Service. Former Army personnel interested in checking whether their specialty is listed, might write a letter, telephone, or visit the Recruiting Station.

The Army urgently needs certain of the men listed in the table of Specialties, and offers with the enlistment a non-commissioned officer grade, steady pay, paid furlough of 30 days each year, and a secure future.

The Recruiting Office is located at 303 Second Avenue, Warren.

Our 99th Opening Wednesday at 7:30 P. M.

Highlights of the Spring Opening

Listen to the TROUBADOURS play soft music which you will hear on all four floors through our sound system, which carries the music to every corner of the store.

SPRING FASHIONS of 1946 will be on display . . . not only fashions to wear, but fashions in the home furnishings departments as well . . . so that you may see what is new for you.

Right from CALIFORNIA are the fashions and accessories you will find in our California Shop on Third Floor. Be sure to visit this shop.

APPLIANCES are once more in the picture at our 99th Opening—Washers, Stoves, Refrigerators, Ironers, Radios—all ready for your inspection on Wednesday evening on our Fourth Floor, where all of the major appliances by famous makers are on display.

They Came in Carriages . . .

To our first Spring Opening, back there in 1896, they came in carriages. There was the pleasant rustle of taffeta as the ladies of Warren descended from their equipages, assisted by their gallant escorts. There was the careful lifting of skirts as they tiptoed from the curb to the doors, so that not even the hem of a lovely dress might be soiled. Fifty years ago a Metzger-Wright Opening was an event. It still is.

In its five decades of active merchandising, Metzger-Wright's has held forty-nine Spring Openings and forty-nine Fall Openings, making a total of ninety-eight. This year, therefore, 1946, will mark the 99th and the 100th Openings. The 99th is that which takes place tomorrow evening at 7:30. The 100th will come early next Fall.

As regularly as the ebb and flow of the seasons, Metzger-Wright's has staged these fashion events. It has been regularly said, and truly, that the season's business doesn't really start in any Warren store, until after "The Opening." These Metzger-Wright "evenings" have, by long acceptance, become community affairs; as much a part of the annual calendar as Thanksgiving or Christmas; we are always surprised by the consistent response. Every season, almost, regardless of weather, the word "Opening" is the signal for the store to be filled with a gay, colorful throng; interested in the new fashions, interested in the friends they meet here; happy in that the coming of a new season has been signalized.

We are proud of the response to our Openings. We are proud of the fact that, for fifty years, the people of northwestern Pennsylvania have regarded Metzger-Wright's as the fashion center. We are proud that, each season, Metzger-Wright's offers a better assortment of famous brands of merchandise, of nationally accepted fashion names, of authentic styles, than any other store in this section of the state. And we are proud that each year, each season, is a little better than the last.

You are cordially invited, with your family, with your friends, with your neighbors, to this, our 99th Opening. This year, as for fifty years past, it is our purpose to keep on
